

HOLD THE DATE!
Saturday, November 16th!
8:30 am - 4:30 pm
(8:30 - 9:00 am registration)

The CWRA Fall Meeting will be held on Saturday, November 16th, at Sessions Woods Wildlife Management Area (341 Milford Street), in Burlington, CT
The meeting is free for CWRA members, $20 for non-members

We are thrilled to feature the following presentations:

- Beaver Benefits, Ecology, and Effective Problem Management (Mike Callahan, of Beaver Solutions, Inc.)
- Fundraising Tips and Tricks (Arianna Mouradjian, former Director of Operations, Wildlife Rehabilitators Association of Rhode Island)
- Opossum Rehabilitation: New Insights and Unconventional Methods (Stephanie Safarick)
- Seasonal Wildlife Issues and How to Avert Them (Laura Simon, CWRA)
- Three Guiding Principles to Increase Rehab Success (Species focus – rabbit rehabilitation, Deborah Galle, CWRA)
- Hot Topics Roundtable (Milk replacer issues, impact of climate change, bring your topics of concern)

Lunch: Either bring lunch, or order pizza slices on-site

Vegan Donations: Bring your favorite vegan treats for all to try (Share the recipes)

Raffle: Contact Roz Downing at rozdown@hotmail.com, if you can donate raffle or silent auction items (we are most grateful for your donations)

Rehabilitator Exam: Contact Laurie Fortin to take the exam, at laurie.fortin@ct.gov

Questions: Contact Laura Simon at laurajsimon999@gmail.com

We hope to see you on Saturday, November 16th, for a terrific meeting! Full agenda details coming soon!!